Findings

For this entirely fictional fixture, the court finds that execution of the cheque and its return unpaid are established by the simulated records. The defence explanation is found insufficient in the fictional fact pattern.

Decision

The accused is convicted for the offence under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act in this simulated judgment.

Sentence and compensation

For UI-testing purposes only, the accused is sentenced to simple imprisonment for three months and to pay a fine of Rs. 5,00,000. Of the fine, Rs. 4,90,000 is directed to be paid to the complainant as compensation and Rs. 10,000 credited to the State. In default of payment, simple imprisonment for one month is recorded in this fixture.

Compliance

A partial payment of Rs. 1,00,000 is recorded on 10 May 2026. This payment and every direction in this document are fictional and have no legal effect.
